WACO family and Friends

I think that we all had a good time at the “House of Tanks”. It was very interesting to see all of the tanks from different countries. I didn’t get a good count on everyone that was there but there was probably between 30 and 40 of us in attendance. The girl up front said that she was very surprised with the turn out and that our group was the most people at one time that she had ever seen there. It was well worth the time to attend. We need to plan more of these outings.

After the “House of Tanks” 19 of us went to Connie’s Mexican Restaurant for some lunch. Personally I thought the place was nice, the food was great and the company / conversation was wonderful. Some of the people at the museum did not join us for lunch because they had prior engagements or wanted to eat somewhere else. They don’t know what they missed.

I went by Richard’s Little Dairy Queen to try and set up a DQ Cruise for this Saturday but I didn’t catch him at the DQ so I didn’t accomplish anything.

If you have plans on cruising Douglas this Saturday, please let me know so that I can let others know that might want to join you.

As you all know by now the MAD Swap Meet has been moved to October 8th & 9th. Set up will be on Thursday the 7th from around 9:00 am until dark.

We finally got an answer from The House of Schwann on when they would be reopening their hospitality room. They are going to reopen on September 1st so we made our reservation for November 6th. I think that we are going to have it as our annual Chili Cookoff. I am sure that I will have more information at a later date.

Come to the meeting and help us plan our next party at “The House of Schwann”.

Please help us plan our next WACO Luncheon by sending me your suggestions.

“The Chill” is one of the ways that WACO raises money for WACO events. In the coming months we will be asking for volunteers to help at “The Chill”. Please put the dates on your calendar and volunteer to help. It is not a lot of work and it is a fun event that you get to attend. Dates and more information are shown below.
